

Group 8

Located in Spain, provocative gypsy Carmen continues her routine in fascinating all the young men at a cigarette factory.

All except for soldier of the guard, Don Jose.

After a quick flower toss, Carmen soon comes to blame for a quarrel at the factory, leading to her arrest.

However, Carmen seduces him and runs away.

One month later, after Jose's imprisonment for letting Carmen slip away, he meets her nearby and tells her his feelings, with a flower in hand.

Carmen then persuade him to stay with her longer, although she's truly in love with a bullfighter, Escamillo.

Learning of his mother's illness, Jose decides to head home.

Soon thereafter, Jose appears at a bullfight that Carmen and Escamillo are at, and demands Carmen to leave with him.

Refusing, Carmen throws away the ring José gave her.

Infuriated, Jose stabs her with a dagger, resulting in his dumbfoundedness by his actions.
