

Group 3

Wozzeck, a former soldier now working as a barber, struggles to keep hold of his sanity due to recent experiences in the past.

In the meantime, Marie, Wozzeck's common-law wife, starts becoming infatuated when a drum major sparks interest in her.

As a doctor finds a solution to Wozzeck's difficulties, on the side,
Marie is being seduced with money
by the drum major.

Becoming suspicious of the random appearance of Marie's money, Wozzeck soon finds out the relationship between his wife and the drum major.

At the prompting of a madman, Wozzeck soon discovers himself only seeing blood...

Walking along a forest path, Wozzeck and Marie talk about fidelity and love...

Resulting in Wozzeck stabbing Marie.

Finally going out of his mind, he stumbles into the forest pool and drowns.